THE BIG IDEA

Creating relationships that connect us to God and others is our ultimate calling.

SETTING OUT

- How many people do you personally know that don't follow Jesus? What does this number help tell you about how much potential you have to share the hope of Jesus with others?
- What are creative ways that you've seen people live their life and faith to help share the Good News of Jesus?
- Is Sunday morning church the only thing God wants for you? If not, then what other creative ways does He want you to live out your life and faith?

READ

- John 21:15-17
  - Although Peter denied Jesus 3 times during His greatest hour of need, did Jesus tell Peter that His story of faith was over? What did Jesus tell Peter?
  - How does this passage encourage and inspire you to live into the mission of Jesus, in spite of your past mistakes?
- Matthew 28:18-20
  - Who does God want us to create relationships with to help share and show the Good News of Jesus?
  - How does the greatest mission ever (the Great Commission) call us to give God our best? What does that look like in your life?

NEXT STEPS

- How are you going to intentionally create relationships with non-believers in order to invite them into the eternal life and forgiveness of Jesus? Brainstorm 3 creative ways.
- How can you protect from becoming insulated and sheltered from the many people who don't follow Jesus, avoiding the "Christian Bubble" that can often unintentionally keep us from the Great Commission?
